

Paradigm Expands Equity Research Team

Paradigm Capital is committed to providing our clients with timely, quality, independent equity research. Over the past six months, we have continued to add depth to our research team, adding Aazan Habib, a top-ranked technical analyst, Daniel Rosenberg, a technology analyst with industry experience, and most recently Adam Gill, a seasoned energy analyst. Adam will be based in Calgary, a market Paradigm has been committed to since 2006.

Founded in 1999, Paradigm Capital is an employee-owned independent Canadian investment bank focused on companies with excellent long-term, secular growth characteristics. With an emphasis on diligence, long term relationships, and a spirit of entrepreneurialism, the Paradigm Capital team has deep expertise in the companies and sectors it maintains under coverage.

Adam Gill, CFA

Adam has over fifteen years of experience in capital markets, primarily in equity research. His area of expertise is the Canadian Intermediate/Junior E&P sector, covering ~50 producers over his career. He is also known for having a deep understanding of North American natural gas markets, particularly issues affecting Western Canada Sedimentary Basin markets. Before joining Paradigm Capital, Adam was a Principal at an independent investment dealer and Executive Director at a leading Canadian bank.

Daniel Rosenberg

Daniel brings eight years of capital markets experience primarily in technology, media, and telecom, as well as an industry perspective, having been the Director of Investor Relations at Rogers Communications. Daniel holds a Master of Business Administration from the Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto and a Bachelor of Science from Concordia University.

Aazan Habib, CFA, CMT

Aazan provides a daily technical look at market conditions, a weekly market overview, and in-depth sector reports. Aazan was recently named the winner in the "Best Multi-Asset Research" category for the Technical Analyst Magazine's 2020 Awards. He was also a finalist for "Technical Analyst of the Year" and "Best Institutional Brokerage for Equity Research" categories.
